Entrepreneurship Center Director Shares Insights on Entrepreneurship Around the World

Dr. Charles H. Matthews literally went around the world in nine days to promote entrepreneurship and entrepreneurship education during the 2009 Global Entrepreneurship Week. Setting out from UC on Tuesday, November 17, Dr. Matthews flew via Chicago and Frankfurt to Budapest, Hungary, for the first of four entrepreneurship keynotes and presentations he would give in Hungary and China before returning home Thanksgiving Day.

November 16, 2009, marked the beginning of Global Entrepreneurship Week and thousands of celebrations worldwide designed to inspire and promote innovation, creativity, and imagination to promote entrepreneurship. It is estimated that more than three million people and 9,000 organizations planned activities between November 16-22.
