Mike Schueler has a deep commitment to the many communities in which the Schueler Group operates. This includes Henkle Schueler & Associates, Bunnell Hill Development and Bunnell Hill Construction Company. The fully aligned trifecta ensures that the Schueler team is a single point of contact for real estate, development and construction.

As President and CEO of the Schueler Group, Mike is the driving force behind every deal that the company makes. His ability to select properties, with an eye toward growth and profitability, is the cornerstone of the company’s continued success. The Schueler Group has continued on a rapid trajectory (throughout a challenged economy) and is routinely recognized in the news media for its growth.

The Company’s presence is apparent across Southwestern, Ohio as well as Indiana, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Virginia and a host of other states. This is evidenced through 19 business parks, large scale medical and office space (that includes the 552-acre Lebanon, Ohio Commerce Center) and the recent ribbon cutting for an international project for INX, a large international ink company.

Mike’s presence extends to community involvement and philanthropy. His commitment includes development leadership for Mount St. Joseph University for which the opening of “Schueler Field” resulted, former Chairmanship of the Warren County Republican Party Central Committee, “Man of the Year” for the Warren County United Way and The University of Cincinnati OCAS Hall of Fame 2007. Additionally, his industry affiliations include being a Governor of The Urban Land Institute Foundation, a member of various international trade commissions, multi location memberships of Chambers of Commerce and Boards of Realtors, and Dayton Development Council.

Mike earned his B.S. from Northwestern University and his MBA from the University of Chicago. He received his PhD from Mount St. Joseph University. Mike and Digi Schueler have three children and nine grandchildren. The Schueler’s are active throughout Greater Cincinnati that includes leadership involvement with social service and arts organizations such as Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park, ArtsWave, Tennis for Charity, Taft Museum, Little Miami Conservancy, and Episcopal Retirement Homes.
