Leadership and Management

Leadership competency is a recognized trait in today’s competitive marketplace. Developing this skill is an investment in human capital and one that often leads to strengthening of a firm and development of an individual.

The Graduate Certificate in Leadership offers advanced study on topics that emerging leaders will encounter. Future leaders will acquire a knowledge base and be equipped with skills to manage positive social change.

Curriculum (12 Credit Hours)

CORE COURSE
MGMT 7014 Leadership and Organizations

ELECTIVES
MGMT 7015 Corporate Responsibility and Business Ethics
MGMT 7017 Managing Across Cultures
MGMT 7031 Strategic Alliance
MGMT 7035 Management of Innovation
MGMT 7073 Human Resource Management
MGMT 7084 Leading Organizational Change
MGMT 7085 Leadership: Developing Exceptional Competence
MGMT 7089 International Competitiveness
ENTR 7089 Entrepreneurship & Strategy

Students may substitute core courses or electives with approval of Academic Director.

Learn More

Ralph Katerberg
Academic Director
Ralph.Katerberg@uc.edu
513-556-7011

Jason Dickman
Director Graduate Recruitment
Jason.Dickman@uc.edu
513-556-7024

business.uc.edu/certificates