No matter what industry you work in and no matter what size your company is, you need a fundamental understanding of the key principles of finance to truly “know” your business. The Finance certificate is designed to give individuals without a financial background a high-level overview and full working knowledge of the primary financial tenets such as capital budgeting, valuation and financial management.

Finance is one of more than a dozen graduate certificates offered by the University of Cincinnati Carl H. Lindner College of Business.

Curriculum (12 Credit Hours)

PREREQUISITE
ACCT 7000  Foundations in Finance & Accounting

CORE COURSES
FIN  7014  Financial Management
FIN  7041  Investments

ELECTIVES
FIN  7035  Financial Information and Valuation
FIN  7055  International Finance
FIN  7061  Advanced Corporate Finance

Students may substitute core courses or electives with approval of Academic Director.

---

Highlights
- Fast, focused and flexible curriculum
- Specialized knowledge to enhance your career
- Transcripted graduate credits that can also apply toward a master's degree

Learn More

Professor Michael Neugent
Academic Director
Michael.Neugent@uc.edu
513-556-7085

Jason Dickman
Associate Director
Graduate Recruitment
Jason.Dickman@uc.edu
513-556-7024

---

business.uc.edu/certificates