One of the Top 10 master’s degrees based on best, affordable program
— Master of Finance Degrees

Master of Science in Finance

Whether your interest is in investments, real estate, corporate finance or risk management and insurance, our graduate program in finance enables you to fast track your career.

Our program is a blend of theoretical and applied knowledge, preparing students to grasp theory and develop skills to apply financial concepts in real-world situations.

Cincinnati is a great place to study business, as 400 companies on the Fortune 500 list have a Cincinnati presence. Recent graduates have accepted jobs in a wide variety of fields ranging from investment banking, corporate finance, wealth management, portfolio management, lending and real estate development.

The MS Finance program at Lindner has a diverse student population, attracting students from India, Botswana, Vietnam, China, Korea, Columbia, Taiwan, Switzerland, Jordan and the United States.

No matter which path you choose, the Lindner Master of Science in Finance program will provide you with the skills and knowledge to succeed.

Program Highlights

- CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ track launches Fall 2015
- Merit-based scholarships are available
- Students are hired by many of the world’s most respected companies such as Citibank, Ernst & Young, Fidelity Investments, China Merchants Bank, PwC and Children's Hospital
- Named one of the nation’s Top 10 Best, Affordable programs by Master of Finance Degrees
- Students can complete the program in as little as nine months
- Curriculum helps prepare students for the Level 1 CFA exam
- Opportunity for paid internships and study abroad

Open to all undergraduate majors

Learn more

Michael Neugent, Program Director, Assistant Professor-Educator
michael.neugent@uc.edu  |  513-556-7085

business.uc.edu/msfinance